

Selecting the Right Size Paddle:

The best paddle to use is the shortest one that allows you to reach the water properly

A quick way to get a personal measure is to place the grip of the paddle between your legs on a chair (while sitting)

The shoulder (where the blade meets the shaft) should be marked at your forehead.

